1998/102. Effects of structural adjustment policies on the full enjoyment of human rights

At its 38th meeting, on 9 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, recalling its decision 1997/103 of 3 April 1997 and taking note of the notes by the Secretariat in this regard (E/CN.4/1998/26 and E/CN.4/1998/27), in particular the decision of the Bureau of the fifty-third session that the second session of the open-ended working group on structural adjustment programmes and economic, social and cultural rights should be rescheduled to take place after the fifty-fourth session of the Commission on Human Rights, decided by a roll-call vote of 36 votes to 14, with 3 abstentions:

(a) To authorize the open-ended working group to meet for one week, at least four weeks before the fifty-fifth session of the Commission, to consider the report of the independent expert and the comments received thereon and to report to the Commission;

(b) To request the independent expert appointed by the Chairman of the fifty-third session of the Commission to submit his report for circulation and comment as envisioned in decision 1997/103 and for consideration by the working group;

(c) To request the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance and resources to enable the working group to complete its work, including the circulation for comment of the report of the independent expert as envisioned in decision 1997/103, and to provide the independent expert with all the necessary assistance and resources to carry out his mandate.

The Commission recommends the following draft decision to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

"The Economic and Social Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights decision 1998/102 of 9 April 1998, endorses the Commission's decision to authorize the open-ended working group on structural adjustment programmes and economic, social and cultural rights to meet for one week, at least four weeks before the fifty-fifth session of the Commission, to consider the report of the independent expert and comments received thereon and to report to the Commission at its fifty-fifth session. In order that the working group may carry out its mandate, the Council decides:

"(a) To request the Secretary-General to circulate the study of the independent expert to Governments, United Nations bodies, in particular the regional commissions, the specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, particularly those involved in development, and academic institutions and organizations representing disadvantaged and vulnerable groups, and to invite them to submit their comments thereon to the working group at its next session;

"(b) Also to request the Secretary-General to invite and encourage non-governmental organizations involved in development and working in the field to participate actively in the sessions of the working group;

"(c) Further to request the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance and resources to enable the working group to complete its task and to provide the independent expert with all the necessary assistance and resources to carry out his mandate."

1998/103. Protection of the heritage of indigenous people

At its 38th meeting, on 9 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of resolution 1997/13 of 22 August 1997 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, endorsed, without a vote, the recommendation of the Sub-Commission that the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights organize a seminar on the draft principles and guidelines for the protection of the heritage of indigenous people (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/31, annex) and the participation of the Special Rapporteur, Ms. Erica-Irene A. Daes, and representatives of Governments, United Nations bodies and organizations, specialized agencies, organizations of indigenous people and competent indigenous persons.

[See chap. XXIII.]

1998/104. Human rights and scientific and technological developments

At its 51st meeting, on 17 April 1997, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of resolution 1997/42 of 28 August 1997 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, recalling that at its present session the Commission will not consider the agenda item entitled "Human rights and scientific and technological developments", recalling its resolution 1997/22 of 11 April 1997 in which the Commission, inter alia, requested the Sub-Commission to give particular attention to the process of selection of studies, and reiterating that studies to be undertaken by members of the Sub-Commission should be based on extended working papers in which the subject and the purpose of the proposed study are clearly identified, decided, without a vote, to request the Sub-Commission to reconsider its recommendation to appoint a Special Rapporteur on human rights and scientific and technological developments.

[See chap. XV.]

1998/105. Study concerning the right to freedom of movement

At its 51st meeting, on 17 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of resolution 1997/30 of 28 August 1997 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, having taken note of the working paper submitted by Mr. Volodymyr Boutkevitch to the Sub-Commission on the right to freedom of movement and related issues, recognizing the important work in this field by the Special Rapporteur of the Commission, Mr. José D. Ingles and Mr. C.L.C. Mubanga Chipoye, recognizing also the important role of both the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the International Organization for Migration in this field and in related areas, recalling its resolution 1997/22 of 11 April 1997 in which the Commission, inter alia, requested the Sub-Commission to give particular attention to the process of selection of studies, and reiterating that studies to be undertaken by members of the Sub-Commission should be based on extended working papers in which the subject and the purpose of the proposed study are clearly identified, decided, without a vote, to return to the question of the appointment of Mr. Boutkevitch as Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country, at its fifty-fifth session, on the basis of a further and extended working paper.

[See chap. XV.]

1998/106. Freedom of movement and population transfer

At its 52nd meeting, on 17 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities resolution 1997/29 of 28 August 1997, decided, without a vote, to recommend to the Economic and Social Council that the final report of Mr. Awn Al-Khasawneh, Special Rapporteur on human rights and population transfer (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/23), be published and widely disseminated.

[See chap. IX.]

1998/107. Human rights and terrorism

At its 52nd meeting, on 17 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities resolution 1997/39 of 28 August 1997, decided, by a roll-call vote of 37 votes to none, with 16 abstentions, to approve the appointment of

Ms. Kalliopi K. Koufa as Special Rapporteur to conduct a comprehensive study on terrorism and human rights on the basis of her working paper (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/28), and to request the Special Rapporteur to submit her preliminary report to the Sub-Commission at its fiftieth session, a progress report at its fifty-first session and a final report at its fifty-second session. The Commission requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the assistance necessary to enable her to accomplish her task.

1998/108. Question of human rights and states of emergency

At its 56th meeting, on 21 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of resolution 1997/27 of 28 August 1997 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, having taken note of the final report and tenth annual list of States, which, since 1 January 1985, have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency submitted by Mr. Leandro Despouy, the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on the question of human rights and states of emergency (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1997/19 and Add.1), and recognizing the important work done by Mr. Despouy, and recalling its resolution 1997/22 of 11 April 1997 in which it requested the Sub-Commission to give particular attention to the process of selection of studies, decided, without a vote, to request the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to submit to the Sub-Commission at its fifty-first session and every second year thereafter, a list of States in which a state of emergency was proclaimed or was continued during the reporting period.

[See chap. XV.]

1998/109. Question of human rights in Cyprus

At its 57th meeting, on 21 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights decided, without a vote, to retain on its agenda item 10 (a), entitled "Question of human rights in Cyprus", and to give it due priority at its fifty-fifth session, it being understood that action required by previous resolutions of the Commission on the subject would continue to remain operative, including the request to the Secretary-General to provide a report to the Commission regarding their implementation.

[See chap. X.]

1998/110. Organization of the work of the fifty-fifth session of the Commission on Human Rights

At its 58th meeting, on 22 April 1998, the Commission on Human Rights, taking note of Economic and Social Council decision 1994/297 of 29 July 1994 and bearing in mind Council decision 1995/296 of 25 July 1995, decided, without a vote, that the fifty-fifth session of the Commission should be scheduled to take place from 15 March to 23 April 1999.

[See chap. III.]

1998/111. Organization of the work of the fifty-fifth session of the Commission on Human Rights

At its 58th meeting, on 22 April 1998, the Commission, taking into account its heavy schedule of work, as well as the need to give adequate consideration to all the items on the agenda, and recalling that in previous years the Economic and Social Council had approved the Commission's request for additional meetings for its thirty-seventh to fifty-fourth sessions, decided, without a vote:

(a) To recommend to the Economic and Social Council that it authorize, if possible within existing financial resources, 30 fully serviced additional meetings, including summary records, in accordance with rules 29 and 31 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, for the Commission's fifty-fifth session;

(b) To request the Chairman of the Commission at its fifty-fifth session to make every effort to organize the work of the session within the times normally allotted, so that the additional meetings that the Economic and Social Council might authorize would be utilized only if such meetings proved to be absolutely necessary.

B. Decisions

1998/112. Enhancing the effectiveness of the mechanisms of the Commission on Human Rights

1998/81. Enhancement of international cooperation in the field of human rights

The Commission on Human Rights,

Reaffirming its commitment to promoting international cooperation, as set forth in the Charter of the United Nations, in particular Article 1, paragraph 3, as well as relevant provisions of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights on 25 June 1993, for enhancing genuine cooperation among States in the field of human rights,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 52/134 of 12 December 1997,

Recognizing that the enhancement of international cooperation in the field of human rights is essential for the full achievement of the purpose of the United Nations, including the effective promotion and protection of all human rights,

Reaffirming the importance of ensuring the universality, objectivity and non-selectivity of consideration of human rights issues, and underlining the importance of mutual understanding, dialogue and genuine cooperation on human rights issues,

Taking note of the adoption of resolution 1997/38 of 28 August 1997 entitled "Promotion of dialogue on human rights issues" by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities at its forty-ninth session,

1. Calls upon States, intergovernmental organizations and specialized agencies to continue to carry out constructive dialogue and consultations for the enhancement of understanding and the promotion and protection of all human rights and fundamental freedoms, and encourages non-governmental organizations to contribute actively to this endeavour;

2. Invites States and all relevant United Nations human rights mechanisms and procedures to pay continued attention to the importance of mutual cooperation, understanding and dialogue in ensuring the promotion and protection of human rights;

3. Decides to continue the consideration of this question at its fifty-fifth session.

60th meeting
24 April 1998
[Adopted without a vote. See chap. IX.]

1998/82. Situation of human rights in Burundi

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Reaffirming its commitment to respect for the principles of the rule of law, which involve democracy, national unity, pluralism and respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Stressing that all States have the duty to promote and protect human rights and to fulfil their obligations under the various instruments to which they are parties,

Considering Security Council resolution 1072 (1996) of 30 August 1996,

Recalling its resolution 1997/77 of 18 April 1997,

Noting with concern that violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms have taken place in several parts of the country,

Recalling that the primary responsibility for peace lies with the Government and people of Burundi,

Acknowledging the efforts made by the United Nations, the Organization of African Unity and the European Union aimed at contributing to a peaceful settlement of the Burundian crisis,

Acclaiming the decision of the Government of Burundi to launch a comprehensive peace process whose main objective is the initiation of nationwide political negotiations open to all parties,

Welcoming the decision of the Government of Burundi to commit itself to the Arusha process whose main objective is the resumption of negotiations open to all the parties concerned,

Considering that effective action to prevent further violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms is indispensable in promoting the stabilization and reconstruction of Burundi and the lasting restoration of the rule of law,

Recognizing the important role of women in the reconciliation process and search for peace, and urging the Government of Burundi to ensure the equal participation of women in Burundian society and to improve their living conditions,

Taking into account the regional summits, including those held in Arusha, Nairobi and Brazzaville, on the situation in the Great Lakes region, and in Burundi in particular,

Considering the decisions, conclusions and recommendations adopted in Tripoli by the Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity,

1. Takes note of the third report of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Burundi (E/CN.4/1998/72) and of his report to the General Assembly (A/52/505);

2. Also takes note of the efforts exerted by the Government of Burundi to improve security and public order in the country, but expresses its concern at actions which sometimes lead to human rights violations;

3. Encourages the countries which imposed sanctions on Burundi to continue to evaluate the effects of the sanctions on the situation in Burundi;

4. Takes note of the process of closing down of the regroupment camps and exhorts the Government of Burundi to close down all the remaining regroupment camps in order to allow the return of displaced persons to their villages, as and when the situation permits;

5. Encourages the Government of Burundi to continue its actions aimed at associating all sectors of Burundian society in the work of national reconciliation and at the restoration of a constitutional order so as to bring back democracy and peace in the interest of the Burundian population;

6. Encourages the dialogue initiated between the Government of Burundi and the National Assembly to decide upon a mutually agreed transitional period, and also dialogue between Burundians, including the armed factions, with a view to putting in place new, democratically elected institutions;

7. Urges all parties to the conflict to end the cycle of violence and killing, notably the indiscriminate violence against the civilian population;

8. Expresses its concern at the forcible recruitment and kidnapping of children by non-governmental armed groups, and invites the Government of Burundi to take measures to combat that trend having in mind the non-militarization of Burundian society, particularly the children;

9. Exhorts the parties to facilitate humanitarian assistance operations in aid of war victims and to comply scrupulously with international humanitarian law;

10. Notes that the Government of Burundi has not yet published the findings of the inquiries conducted into the murder of three staff members of the International Committee of the Red Cross which took place on 4 June 1996, and again exhorts the Government to publish the findings of those inquiries;

11. Takes note of the efforts of the Government of Burundi aimed at ensuring that established legal safeguards for human rights and international human rights standards are fully respected, and calls upon the Government to continue its efforts to that end;

12. Notes with concern the conditions of detention, in particular of persons liable to the death penalty, and encourages the Government to take more measures to rectify the situation;

13. Invites the Government of Burundi to take more measures, including in the judicial sphere, to put an end to impunity, in particular by bringing to trial those responsible for violations of human rights and of international humanitarian law, in accordance with relevant international principles, and urges the Government to accelerate the specific procedures for inquiries in case of violation of those rights;

14. Expresses its deep concern at the serious violations of human rights and international humanitarian law, in particular with regard to information reporting massacres, enforced or involuntary disappearances, and arbitrary arrests and detention, while taking note of the encouraging signs in the struggle against impunity and for the promotion of human rights on the part of the Government of Burundi;

15. Expresses its concern at the utilization, by the authorities, of civilians for military tasks such as participation in night patrols, mine-clearance campaigns or transport of military equipment, thereby putting the civilian population in danger;

16. Welcomes the efforts of the Government of Burundi to ensure the safety of staff of the United Nations and humanitarian organizations and that of individuals in Burundi serving in the same cause;

17. Commends the human rights observer mission in Burundi for the activities it is conducting in the field, welcomes the cooperation afforded to it by the Government of Burundi, and calls for the strengthening of that observer mission through voluntary contributions;

18. Supports the efforts of the mediators of the United Nations, the Organization of African Unity and the European Union in the search for a lasting solution to the problems of Burundi;

19. Calls upon all parties to the conflict in Burundi to work constructively with the international mediators in the search for a lasting peace;

20. Encourages the Organization of African Unity in its efforts, particularly through its Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution, to remain engaged in preventing the further deterioration of the situation;

21. Expresses its concern at the large number of incidents as a result of which persons are injured or killed by the explosion of anti-personnel landmines and calls upon the Government of Burundi to take urgent measures, if necessary with the assistance of the international community, to prepare a programme of mine clearance and a public awareness campaign concerning mines;

22. Calls upon the international community to continue to provide humanitarian assistance needed by displaced persons and returnees in Burundi, so that the peace process initiated in the country may become a tangible sign of reconciliation;

23. Condemns the illegal sale and distribution of weapons and related materials which disturb peace and security in the region;

24. Requests States not to allow their territories to be used as bases for incursions or attacks against another State, in violation of the principles of international law, including the Charter of the United Nations;

25. Supports the implementation by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights of a programme of assistance designed for members of the armed forces and the police in the field of human rights and legal assistance;

26. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one year, requests him to submit an interim report on the situation of human rights in Burundi to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session and a report to the Commission at its fifty-fifth session, and requests him to give his work a gender-specific dimension;

27. Recommends the following decision to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

"The Economic and Social Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1998/82 of 24 April 1998, endorses the Commission's decision to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Burundi for one year, requests him to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session and a report to the Commission at its fifty-fifth session, and requests him to give his work a gender-specific dimension."

60th meeting
24 April 1998
[Adopted without a vote. See chap. X.]

1998/83. Question of resources for the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the human rights activities of the United Nations

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling the relevant conclusions and recommendations of the World Conference on Human Rights,

Having considered the information brought to its attention by the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on developments, and measures taken since the World Conference relating to mandates and responsibilities of the High Commissioner and to the level of resources available to permit fulfilment thereof,

Considering the measures taken by the Commission at its current session concerning the establishment or expansion of mandates of the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, inter alia in recognition of the need for increased attention to economic, social and cultural rights, the right to development and related matters,

1. Expresses its concern that, with the resources currently available from the United Nations regular budget, the High Commissioner will not be in a position to fulfil the full range of established and new mandates;

2. Appeals therefore to the Secretary-General, to the Economic and Social Council and to the General Assembly to take all necessary steps, without delay, to secure for the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and for other relevant components of the Organization regular budget resources for the current and future bienniums that will be sufficient to permit the effective fulfilment of the responsibilities and mandates established by Member States and commensurate with the importance assigned by the Charter of the United Nations to the promotion and protection of human rights.
